

Holy Trinity Centennial Scholarship Trust

Thank you for your interest in the Holy Trinity Centennial Scholarship Trust. The sole function of the Trust is to provide scholarship aid to persons actively involved in or committed to future participation in the ministry of the Episcopal Church or the Anglican Communion. For example, the Trust might help an applicant initiate, develop, or complete a program of study through an educational institution, seminar, or certification program. Funds granted could be used for registration, books, tuition, or fees. Grants generally vary between $1,000 and $5,000.

In order to be considered for a scholarship, a complete application should be submitted which is to include:

- A detailed description of the ministry that the applicant intends to pursue
- A detailed explanation of how any scholarship funds that may be granted will be used
- An indication of previous academic curriculum and performance including a sealed, official copy of the applicant's college transcript (undergraduate). Graduate school transcripts may be submitted also.
- A current resume/ curriculum vitae
- A copy of the applicant's most recent IRS Form 1040 (please do not include any schedules or attachments). If income for the current year is expected to be significantly different from that on the IRS form, indicate this figure as well.
- Three letters of support or recommendation mailed independently by the references. One of the references must be by an ordained member of the Episcopal/Anglican clergy. Family members may not serve as references.

For applicants outside North America:

- Include all the information above except the IRS Form 1040.

In addition, please include:

- Detailed information on the applicant's sources of income.
- A letter from the applicant's Bishop, indicating approval or endorsement
- Submission of the application electronically rather than regular mail

Deadline for all application materials, including letters of support, is March 31, 2024 (received by not postmarked by date). All materials should be sent to:

Application Form

The Holy Trinity Centennial Scholarship Trust is a charity organized for the purpose of providing scholarship aid to persons actively involved in or committed to future participation in the ministry, lay or ordained, of the Episcopal Church or within the Anglican Communion, so that such persons may initiate, develop, or complete a program of study and preparation leading to such a ministry.

Applicants seeking funding to pursue an academic course of study must submit transcripts of previous coursework with this application, and such recipients will be required to submit official transcripts during each year of scholarship support. All recipients are required to submit status reports during the course of their study and a final report at the conclusion of the scholarship period. Any recipient who elects not to pursue a proposed course of study leading to the ministry outlined in the application will be required to reimburse the Trust for scholarship funds not expended as proposed.

- Deadline for completed applications: March 31, 2024 (received by not postmarked by date)
- Scholarship(s) awarded: May 26, 2024 (Trinity Sunday)
